

Study Up

We're partnering with your favorite vendors to bring you a dehumidification training to a location near you.

Please join us for a training to learn about the dehumidification products we offer. The class will focus on the technical aspects, as well as some selling features. Take advantage of this in-person training taught by Ferguson's own Brian Saltzman. Join us on Thursday, November 2, 2023, at the Orlando branch. Breakfast will be served.
